

Charge for NCSX Autoclave FDR

1. Are the performance requirements adequately defined for the Autoclave System?
2. Does the system design satisfactorily address the performance requirements?
3. Have safety and environmental consideration been adequately addressed?
4. Do the plans for making the autoclave system operational appear reasonable and complete?
5. Does the final design of the pressure vessel address its allocated requirements?
6. Is the technical documentation for the pressure vessel adequate for its fabrication, installation, and testing?
7. Does the final design of the electrical system address its allocated requirements?
8. Is the technical documentation of the electrical system adequate for its fabrication, installation, and testing?